

THE BIG IoT HACKathon

Friday 26 to Sunday 28 April

DeskLodge, Basingstoke

Ready for a challenge?

Ready for a challenge? Could you design, develop and pitch the next killer smart technology?

Join us for an intensive but fun weekend to develop new smart technology which addresses real challenges faced by local residents and businesses.

We're looking for business people, developers, designers, marketers and students for this great opportunity to collaborate, create an idea and bring it to market.

You'll have the whole weekend to develop a business plan and prototype solution and pitch them to a panel of expert judges who will select a winner.

It's simple: innovate, collaborate and create – and you could change the lives of others.
